LOCAL BREVITIES.

Lopez have a new ad.
Probate court next week.
Strawberries are getting plentiful.
County court is in session this week.
A slight frost again Tuesday night.
What more lovely than the month of May.
WANTED—A good Jersey cow.
Apply at this office.
A frost Sunday night. The gardens suffered most.
Democratic mass meeting at the courthouse Saturday.
It will take lots of rain from now on to make a good grass crop.
Lopez millinery opening at Graniteville, May 9th and 10th.
Chas. L. Fox is now yardmaster for the Frisco at Cape Girardeau.
The first excursion of the season from St. Louis next Sunday, May 13th.
The streams, it is said, have more fish in them than for years past.
Prof. Daugherty says that the Summer School is progressing very nicely.
The fire place has been mighty comfortable the past few mornings and evenings.
St. Paul's Guild meets at the residence of Mrs. H. M. Collins Thursday afternoon.
Mrs. Garr has just completed a wire fence in front of her residence on Main street.
Where were the tadpoles Saturday? The convention seems to have ignored them altogether.
It is said that the Emerson property is about to be sold to some St.
Louis man for a summer home.
Circuit court adjourned last Saturday evening after the longest session we've had in many years.
The excursion frequently brings rain. Let us hope that the visitors next Sunday will have a fine day.
Next week we will publish the programme of the drummers' celebration at Poplar Bluff, May 24, 25 and 26.
The school board meets Saturday night to elect teachers for the ensuing year. It is said there are numerous applicants.
Fine fresh strawberries are being received by Lopez Store Co.
Special price by the crate. Leave or phone your orders.
Wm. H. Whitworth, Mann Ringo, J. L. Baldwin and John Conway are camping and fishing on St. Francis river this week.
H. M. Collins went to St. Louis last week to sell some horses. He is detained there this week as a member of the federal jury.
An adjourned term of circuit court will be held August 4th when Judge Williams will render a decision construing the Emerson wills.
The county financial statement closes this week. The circuit court docket, with the disposition of each case, will be printed next week.
Evidently the Republicans of Iron county had all they wanted of a hybrid ticket in the campaign of two years ago. Every nominee on their ticket this year is a full-fledged Republican, and not a crumb was left fall from the table to tempt the bolters.

MARRIED—At Ironton, Thursday, May 3, 1906, by W. G. Fairchild, J. P., Edward Hart, of Iron county, and Nettie Rickmar, of Ironton.

MARRIED—At Ironton, Mo., on May 8, 1906, Mr. Andy Hart to Miss Carrie Brooks, Judge W. C. Johnson officiating. Both of Granite-ville, Mo.

Griffin excursion from St. Louis to Arcadia and return $1.25, via Iron Mountain route, Sunday, May 13, leaving at 8:05 A. M., returning, arrive at 10 P. M.

A couple of cars of doors were shipped from the screen factory this week. That about disposes of all the stock left on hand when the factory closed.

Walter Nagel happened into town this morning after an eight months' absence in California and Texas. And he seems to be right glad to get back to Missouri.

Mr. G. B. Lindsay was May 1st appointed general agent of mail service of the Wash. lines. The position is a good one, and we are glad to know that Gratz got it.

The excursionists from St. Louis next Sunday are requested to take their meals at the hotel, as the Sisters at the Convent will not be prepared to serve dinners on that occasion.

Remember Prof. G. B. Thomas of Carleton College, at Farmington, Mo., preaches at the M. E.
Church, Sunday, May 20, 1906, morning and evening. Give him a good hearing.

There seems to be a sentiment all through Southeast Missouri that there have been too many murderers left unpunished. The tide has turned and the guilty will have to suffer for their crimes.

The Reynolds county circuit court convenes May 28th. A large number of witnesses will attend from here to testify in the case of State vs. Arthur Spauld for the murder of Sheriff Polk May 25th last.

De Soto and other towns adjacent to St. Louis are endeavoring to secure the location of shoe factories of some of the big firms in St. Louis. What an admirable place the Valley would be to locate such an institution.

Somebody over in Farmington last Thursday sent a report to the St. Louis papers that iron county had been visited by a terrible storm and much damage resulted.
There was a blow Thursday night and south of town some sleet, but no great damage reported.

Drummers excursion to Poplar Bluff, May 24th. Train leaves St.
Louis 9 A. M., May 24th, and reach Poplar Bluff 2:30 P. M. same date.
Rate $2.35. Ticket limited for return to special train, leaving Poplar Bluff about 3 P. M. Saturday, May 26, 1906. C. DOWNEY.

A mass meeting of the Democrats of Iron county will be held at the courthouse, Saturday, May 12, 1906, at one o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State and Judicial Conventions. Every Democrat in the county who can do so should attend.

Joseph McCoy, Secretary of the Republican State Committee, was in Ironton last Saturday to make a speech to the county convention.
Evidently the prospect in Iron county did not present itself as an encouraging one, for, after making a few remarks, Mr. McCoy hurried away on the 3:20 train.

A representative from the bridge and building department of the railroad company was here last week and announced that the material had been ordered for Ironton's new depot, and work thereon would soon begin. Just possess your souls in patience, gentle public. The structure will be built just south of the present depot.

James Sutton was convicted in the circuit court last Wednesday of burglarizing the depot at Sabula in November, 1904, and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Bert Brown and Chas. Dunn, who were charged with the same offense, were tried later in the week. Dunn was given two years and Brown discharged, the jury spending almost a day in agreeing.

The railroad company has the ten trip tickets to St. Louis on sale at the Arcadia station, but not at Ironton. This occurs to us as singular. Surely the people who get on the train at Ironton have the same right to ride to St. Louis and return for $2.50 as those who embark at Arcadia. But the passenger department has ruled otherwise. The ten trip tickets are on sale at Arcadia, but not at Ironton.

THREE SERMONS—At M. E.
Church, Ironton, Sunday, May 13, 11 o'clock A. M. Subject: "Consider the Lilies." Matt. 6-28.
Evening, 7:45 P. M., "How God comforts his people." Isaiah 51-12. At Pilot Knob, 3 P. M. Subject: "Heart Trouble." You may encourage the pastor very much by your presence. The larger the congregation the greater the inspiration to the preacher. Junior League at 3 P. M. Please attend these services. A. J. MAY.

It is rumored that one of the recent visitors from this county to the fortune teller, Mrs. Forbes, in Wayne county, was one of the sore-heads, who has imagined for the past six or eight years that he was counted out at a primary election held in this county some time ago. It is said that the wizard said: "No, you were not counted out; you just failed to get the votes." If the fortune teller is as reliable in all matters as in this, she is all right.

The Haller property was not sold at trustee's sale Monday. The debt against the property—$2300—was paid Saturday by F. Wyand, of St. Louis, who recently bought the place from Mr. Chambers. A deed was filed Saturday wherein Mr. Wyand transfers the property to Nicholas O. Klein and Morris Fermish, of St. Louis. The consideration named in the deed is ten thousand dollars. It is said the late purchasers will conduct a merchandise business in the building.

All are cordially invited to the lectures at the M. E. church, Ironton, and Fort Hill church, Arcadia, Thursday and Friday evenings, May 10th and 11th. Mrs. Carrie Carter Stokes of Dexter will speak Thursday evening at Ironton; Mrs.
Kuhl, a national W. C. T. U. evangelist of Chicago, will deliver a lecture on "Our Boys" the same evening at Arcadia. Rev. Mary Kuhl will speak at the M. E. church, Ironton, Friday evening, while Mrs. Carrie Stokes will lecture at Arcadia during the same interval.

The following ticket was nominated at the Democratic primary election in Reynolds county last Saturday: Representative, T. J.
Sweeney; Prosecuting Attorney, Geo. D. Sloan; County Clerk, J.
R. Johnson; Circuit Clerk, M. J.
Harrison; Collector, T. J. Jordan; Sheriff, H. L. Fitts; Treasurer, J.
A. Bowles; Probate Judge, John H. Keith; Presiding Judge, J. C.
Turner; Associate Judges, J. J.
Farris and F. B. Hunter. About two hundred and fifty more votes were polled than in the primary two years ago.

The Republicans held a convention in the Academy of Music Saturday and nominated the following county ticket: Representative, Rev. J. H. Calvert; Presiding Judge County Court, Jno. Schwab; Associate Judges—Southern District, L. L. Schmidt; Western district, F. M. Adams; Collector, Ed.
Caldwell; Prosecuting Attorney, Adrian Steel; Probate Judge, J.
S. Luthy; Sheriff, C. D. Alexander; Treasurer, W. T. Gay; Coroner, J. Q. Adams; Circuit Clerk, Jos. Dubecker; County Clerk, Alison Tims. All aboard for Salt River!

W. T. O'Neal returned on last Thursday from taking Louis Manes, the navy deserter, back to his ship at Norfolk, Virginia.
William says he had a fine trip and enjoyed it immensely. He stopped off a day at the National Capitol on his way home and watched the big law-makers for several hours. He says, though, that unquestionably our Congressman—Rhodes—is a much bigger man out here in the district where the Republican papers are continually blowing him up, than he is in Washington—where nobody seemed to know anything about him.

W. G. Whitworth's store building in Arcadia had a very narrow escape from destruction by fire last Friday night. Shortly after midnight, Mr. J. W. Whitworth, who rooms up stairs over the store was awakened from his sleep and discovered that his bed was on fire.
The lamp had either turned over or exploded and set fire to the bedding. Mr. Whitworth sprang from the bed and succeeded in throwing some of the burning bed clothes out of the window. The heat and smoke nearly overcame him, and he rushed from the building and called for help. Two or three men who were at Hempelman's saloon hurried to his assistance and they succeeded in putting out the flames, not, however, until everything in the room was destroyed.
It was a close call for the entire building and had the discovery been a few moments later it would have been impossible to save it.

The General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, now in session at Birmingham, Alabama, last Friday telegraphed greetings to the venerable Rev. J. C. Berryman of Caledonia. Father Berryman is said to be the only living member of the General Conference of the M. E. Church wherein the church divided. Mr. Berryman is now in his ninety-seventh year.
He is totally blind and very feeble, and the end is doubtless not far off. The foregoing lines were written Tuesday afternoon, and hardly had we penned them until the "phone rang and the operator at "Central" apprised us that the venerable clergyman had just passed away. The funeral occured at Caledonia Thursday morning at ten o'clock, Rev. M. T. Haw of Charleston officiating. In the fulness of his years he has gone to reap the reward of a well-spent life. The story of his life is the history of the early days of this county. We shall endeavor to publish a fitting obituary later.

Judge Williams refused to grant a new trial to John and Amalek Brooks, who were convicted of murder in the first degree in the circuit court week before last, for killing John Clemonds at Granite-ville on August 12th last. Mr.
Rivers, attorney for the defendants, tried hard to have the verdict of the jury set aside, and in his motion asking for a new trial made various charges and allegations. The court investigated them all thoroughly, however, and concluded there was no good reason for a new trial, and just before court adjourned Saturday afternoon sentenced the defendants to be hung July 6th. The court room was filled with spectators at the time and many commented on the marked change in the defendants.
All during the trial they were indifferent and apparently defiant.
Not so on the day of sentence.
They were downcast and the misery and suffering they were undergoing was plainly evident as the court pronounced the awful sentence. Mr. Rivers promptly appealed the case to the Supreme Court, and it will probably be a year before that tribunal passes on it.

Young man have you bought that new spring suit yet? Lopez's are waiting to show you the best line you have ever seen at the price.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Fred Patton is in Illinois.
Paul Steel is home from St.
Francis county.
Miss Annabelle Gaines visited

Louis will spend the summer in their home at Arcadia.
Miss Lela O'Neal spent a couple of days last week with her brother, Godfrey, in Frankelay.
Miss Bethel has returned after spending the past season in St.
Louis studying millinery.
Mrs. Grover and Mrs. Johnson and some friends were here from St. Louis several days last week.
Mrs. H. A. Stowell has gone to Waverly, Ill., to visit her mother and sisters. She will not return before the 18th inst.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Raney came from St. Louis last Thursday evening, and are spending a few weeks in Mrs. Raney's home in this city.

Des Arc Items.

E. W. Graves has moved into his new store house. This is the finest building this side of Poplar Bluff.
I was out on the Holladay road last week. There are lots of lumber and staves being shipped over that road.
Dave Stevenson, of the firm of Stevenson Bros., was here from Williamsville Sunday.
Henry Hickman, hub inspector for Baldwin Bros., spent Sunday with home folk.
Several candidates were to see us last week.
Peter Giessing, of the Giessing Milling Company of Farmington, Mo., was here last week and sold to the Des Arc merchants two car loads of flour and one car corn.
This is a wide awake flour firm and make the best flour on earth.
Our Holliness people have bought a lot in Des Arc and will build a church on it 28x50, 14 feet high, to cost about one thousand dollars.
Walter Strother will build it.
Mrs. Chas. L. Williams and baby were up from Piedmont Sunday.
Mrs. Mattie Walton, of St. Louis, is visiting her mother, Mrs.
Maddox.
Sam Fitz, operator for the Frisco, is working days at Chaffee, Mo.—a new town near Illinois on the Frisco. ISAAC.
I have good hay for sale.
H. M. COLLINS.

From Goodwater.

No rain of any consequence fell here since the 13th inst., until this morning. To-day, April 30th, a good rain fell and gladdened the hearts of all farmers; for never were prospects better for a dry crop year than they have been during the past fortnight. Although it frequently became damp and cloudy, the clouds passed us, or scattered without precipitating their much-desired contents on our fields. Corn-planting, which did not begin here until the 20th inst., was delayed by the lack of moisture that was sorely needed to put the soil in proper tilth for planting. Oats—of which an unusually large acreage was sown—germinated very slowly, but will now grow vigorously, if we are blessed with an abundant rainfall during the next month. Meadows are, generally, in poor condition, very weedy, and need much moisture to ensure even an ordinarily good yield of hay.

Apples, plums and cherry trees were literally loaded with blooms, but, excepting in a few favored localities, peach trees are bare of blossoms.

Wm. Crocker and family have moved to Samuel Crocker's farm and Roy Chester and family to J.
M. Lucas' farm.

Wm. Carl is building a new schoolhouse in the Tolu district.
Mr. Carl is an industrious man and skillful mechanic.

On the 18th three employees of the American Iron Mountain Company passed through here with 11 head of horses en route to Rolla, Mo.

Died, April 11th, of pneumonia, Mr. Alexander ("Zan") Jennings, aged about 50 years. The deceased left a large family, well-provided for. His remains were interred in the Abbott Cemetery.

During the past month the following-named persons were here on business: Mr. Dewey, of near Ironton; Louis Bean, of Caledonia; Mr. Blythe, of Mattoon, Ills.

On business went: Jas. O. Scott and T. E. Crocker to Ironton. G.
W. Boulch to Brule; J. M. Lucas, to Iron Mountain; W. and Claude Carl and Wm. A. Abney, to near Belgrade.

The following-named persons visited relatives here during April: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maxwell and Geo. W. Love of near Belgrade; Charles McLain of St. Louis; W.
G. Henderson, of Burgundy; Lee Erschloe, of St. Louis; Mr. Geo.
F. Mason and family of near Czar.

Wm. Henderson has been employed to teach the next term of school in this district.

Mr. James Wood, the 21-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George H.
Wood, of near Tolu, died after several days of intense suffering on the morning of the 28th, at Flat River, where he had been working. His death was caused by pneumonia. He was a quiet and inoffensive young man and is survived by his grief-stricken parents, brothers and sisters, besides numerous other relatives and friends. The deceased was a member of the Modern Woodmen and was insured by that order for $1,000, with his mother named as beneficiary. His remains were brought to the residence of his parents last evening and interred this morning—30th—in Emmaus Church cemetery. R. E.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ills than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occasionally. Stir the liver up, and get into shape generally. The best results are derived from the use of DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Reliable, effective, pleasant pills with a reputation. Never gripe. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Hogan Items.

Joe Sutton and family of Flat River spent Monday night with Foreman Sutton of this place. Joe left Tuesday for a fishing trip on Black river.
Mrs. Chas. Bolch of Annapolis was the guest of Mrs. Bisch Thursday.
Wyton Nance of Lesterville spent Sunday in Hogan.
Mr. and Mrs. Clint Stout gave the young folks a very nice little dance Saturday night.
Our Greek neighbors are making a good record as farmers, and with a good season will have a splendid crop.
Chas. Bollinger of Sabula spent Sunday with Charley Holloman.
Bisch and Loomis spent Saturday on Black river fishing. They will not say who caught the large cat fish.
J. B. Holloman spent Saturday in Ironton.
Ed. Conley has been courting the last two weeks in Ironton.
A. O. Gibbons has purchased the land north of Hogan, and will soon build a neat little cottage on it.
